

Crusade Prayer (171)

The Mother's Prayer of Protection

O Holy Mother of God, come to me at this time in my hour of need. Offer my intentions to your Son, Jesus Christ, when I am drowning in sorrow.

Free me from the fear and hurt inflicted upon me for following the path of Christ.

Protect all souls from physical and mental oppression in times of turmoil ahead.

Pray, pray, pray for the darkness in the world to be lifted and free us from the perils of the evil one, and those who carry out his devious plans to destroy humanity.

Fill me with the gift of seeking out God's help when doubts fill my soul as to His promises to redeem humanity from the clutches of evil. Cover us with your protection and peace.

Give us the solace and the strength we need to serve Jesus until our dying breath. Pray that our suffering will bring relief to souls who are in darkness and help them to seek the salvation that God has promised them through Jesus' death on the cross. Amen.